PRESENT

Mayor: V Pizey, Councillors: C Fadden, G Anderson, W Lundgren & J Moen. Clerk-Treasurer: P W Giles, Rd Supt Ed Pearson. Visitors: T Sepers, L Pentney, C Pratt & N Miller from Morson WI.

Council met at 7pm to held a Public Meeting to consider by-laws to adopt a new Official Plan and a new Comprehensive Zoning By-law that meeting was declared closed at 7:20

The Council held a public meeting to discuss the draft 2013 Budget and Tax Rates. The expenditures, revenues, allocations to reserves and tax rates were discussed. The municipal tax rate will remain the same as last year and there will be a reduction in the residential education tax rate. T Sepers asked Council to consider hiring someone to coordinate and run an exercise program for seniors during the next winter. He suggested an amount of $3500 to cover the program costs. Council will consider the matter. The meeting was closed at 7:55pm. The regular meeting of Council followed.

The Morson WI delegation produced pictures of our 3 tourism signs. The pictures showed the signs to be in a poor condition and the group asked Council to provide funding to renew the signs. The 2 on Hwy 11 are to be replaced and the group will get estimates and work on a few options for wording and colours etc. The sign at the corner of Hwy 621 and Lighthouse Rd will be removed. They will report back to Council for approval. The delegation also requested the two large planters be removed from the Morson Cemetery as one has been damaged and there is a shortage of water to keep the flowers fresh. The Rd Supt will look after this item.
